Kathleen L. Isherwood, a long time resident of Laurel Springs, New Jersey, was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on August 7, 1953. She was the daughter of William and Lorraine Isherwood and she had one brother, William, Jr. Kathy was baptized at Epiphany of Our Lord Catholic Church on August 23, 1953. She attended Epiphany Grammar School and St. Maria Goretti High School graduating in 1971. After high school she attended Camden County College where she received an Associate degree. She continued her studies earning a B.S. degree from Thomas Edison College in New Jersey and a Master's Degree in Ministry from St. Joseph's of Maine.

Kathy worked for many years for Cigna Corporation, as a Research Analyst. During this time she also served in her parish as Eucharistic Minister, Catechist and Junior High Ministry Coordinator. In later years, she served as the Director of Religious Education in various parishes in the Dioceses of New Jersey.

Kathy made her commitment as a Lay Salvatorian on November 8, 1993, in Blackwood, New Jersey. Clairemary McDermott was her sponsor. Kathy was a kind and gracious lady. She was always smiling and engaged people with her generous nature. She was warm and welcoming, a true Salvatorian who exemplified the goodness and kindness of our Savior.

After a long illness, Kathy passed away peacefully on May 10, 2015. She leaves behind her mother, Lorraine, her brother, William and her niece, Jill. She was preceded in death by her father, William, Sr. Her Funeral Mass was held on Thursday, May 14 at Christ the King Church in Haddonfield, New Jersey. In lieu of flowers, it was requested that donations be made in Kathy's name to Samaritan Hospice, 5 Eves Dr., Suite 300, Marlton, NJ 08053.

Kathy will be missed by all who knew her, by all whose lives she touched and especially by the Salvatorians in the Eastern Region.
